

The image displays two identical sets of stainless steel mounting hardware. Each set includes a main L-shaped bracket with a pre-drilled hole at the top and two elongated slots below. Accompanying each bracket are two screws and one hex nut, all made of stainless steel, for secure fastening.

